

Programme Educational Objectives (PEOs)

The PEOs of Bachelor of Science (Hons) Quantity Surveying are to produce:

- Graduates with competency in practicing the principles of quantity surveying and state-of-art approaches.
- Graduates with effective management capability in communication and collaboration within multidisciplinary team.
- Graduates practicing professional ethics, life-long learning, and principles of sustainable development for the betterment of the profession and society.

Programme Outcomes (POs)

After completing this programme, students will be able to:

- PO1 Demonstrate knowledge and comprehension of fundamental principles of quantity surveying and current contemporary development and issues particularly relating to the construction industry.
- PO2 Demonstrate in-depth technical competence in the discipline and exhibit systematic approaches throughout the project life cycle.
- PO3 Respect the cultural diversity; and demonstrate social responsibility towards the community and society.
- PO4 Commit to the professional ethics and global sustainability practices.
- PO5 Communicate effectively in conveying information, ideas, problems and solutions; and function effectively both as a leader and/or member in any multidisciplinary and multicultural team.
- PO6 Identify problems, examine interpreted underlying issues, identify the available options, collect and analyse data and formulate solutions.
- PO7 Demonstrate ability to make use of state of the art resources and techniques for quantity surveying practices and recognize the importance of lifelong learning.
- PO8 Make decisions based on informed risk assessment in order to identify entrepreneurial opportunities and demonstrate managerial skills